ITINERARY OVERVIEW

Day 1

Pick up your RV in the San Francisco area. After your orientation, drive down the coast to Monterey where you'll stay the night at a beachside campground location in your RV.

Day 2

Explore Napa! One of the most prestigious wine regions in the world, you'll have your pick of wineries and tasting rooms to choose from. Be sure to save time to explore the charming downtown Napa area with fantastic shopping and restaurants. Overnight in Napa in a camping accommodation.

Day 3

Enjoy another full day in the Napa Valley and consider taking a drive north through the valley. While you enjoy this scenic drive, you can also check out the many towns and wineries that reside in this area, including Yountville and Calistoga. Overnight in Napa in a camping accommodation.

Day 4

Begin your journey from Napa to South Lake Tahoe. Stop in Davis for a bite to eat at Farmer's Kitchen or spend an hour or two in the gold rush town of Placerville with its preserved Historic Hangtown area. Overnight in South Lake Tahoe in a camping accommodation.

Day 5

Explore Lake Tahoe! Get on the water with a boat, kayak, or stand up paddleboard rental. If you want to stay on land, relax on the beach or take one of the many hikes in the area. Overnight in South Lake Tahoe in a camping accommodation.

Day 6

Enjoy your second full day in Lake Tahoe. Consider a drive to the West Shore to see a little different side of the lake. Tahoe City is known for its abundance of restaurants, hikes, and activities. If you have time, take a drive towards Truckee and visit Squaw Valley, home of the 1960 Winter Olympics. Overnight in South Lake Tahoe in a camping accommodation.

Day 7

Head south east towards the town of Lodi. Lodi features an up-and-coming wine scene and has a very laid-back nature. Enjoy the afternoon in this quaint town and choose from their many wineries to visit. Overnight in Lodi in a camping accommodation.

Day 8

Pack up camp for the final time and begin the drive to San Francisco where you will drop off your RV.
