ITINERARY OVERVIEW

Day 1

Pick up your RV in the Seattle area. After your orientation, head south west towards the capital city of Washington, Olympia. Overnight in Olympia in a camping accommodation.

Day 2

After a leisurely morning, drive through the Columbia River Gorge to Cascade Locks. Overnight in Cascade Locks in a camping accommodation.

Day 3

Explore the Columbia River Gorge! With its many hikes, gorgeous waterfalls, and scenic overlooks, you will find beauty all around you in the Columbia River Gorge. Visit Multnomah Falls and Bridal Veil Falls for stunning waterfalls or take a hike at Rooster Rock State Park. Overnight in Cascade Locks in a camping accommodation.

Day 4

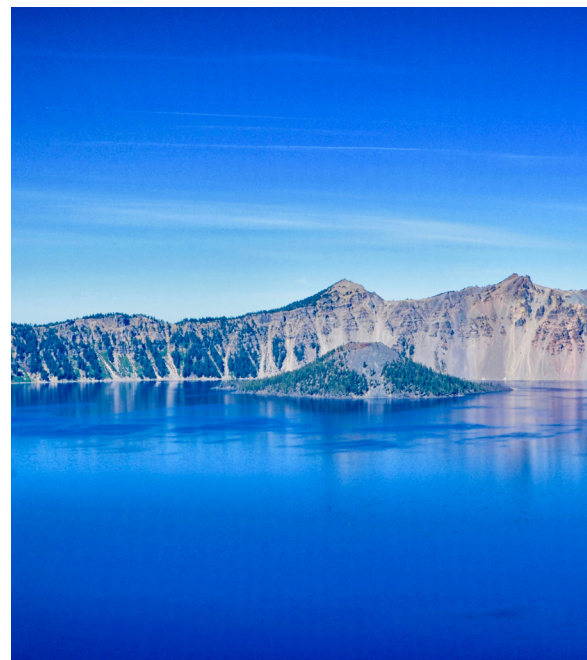

Take the scenic route through Mt. Hood National Forest towards Bend. Bend is an outdoor enthusiast's paradise, with river floating, abundant hiking and biking trails, and nearby Smith Rock State Park with world-class mountain climbing, biking, and hiking. Overnight in Bend in a camping accommodation.

Day 5

Explore Bend! Float on the Deschutes River, wander the quaint town, check out the many hiking trails, or sample one of the many local breweries. Overnight in Bend in a camping accommodation.

Day 6

Begin your journey from Bend to Crater Lake National Park. Crater Lake is the deepest lake in America and easily one of the clearest. And with gorgeous hikes, boat tours, and scenic drives, you'll get to take in the beauty of the lake from all angles. Overnight in Crater Lake National Park in a camping accommodation.

Day 7

Explore Crater Lake National Park! There are many ways to enjoy Crater Lake National Park, including hiking a mountain for some beautiful views of the lake from above, taking a boat tour to Wizard Island to see the lake up close, or driving the scenic Rim Drive either in your RV or by trolley tour. Overnight in Crater Lake National Park in a camping accommodation.

Day 8

After breakfast in your RV, drive south towards Ashland. Surrounded by vineyards and the Rogue and Klamath Rivers, there's something for everyone in this charming southern Oregon town. Get lost in the gorgeous Lithia Park, or explore the many wineries in the area. Overnight in Ashland in a camping accommodation.

Day 9

Head inland towards McMinnville, known as the "heart of Oregon wine country." McMinnville is world famous for both its viticulture and artisan dining experience. It's also a great family-friendly getaway. Overnight in Carlton in a camping accommodation.

Day 10

Explore McMinnville and the Willamette Valley. Today is a great day to go wine tasting or wander the downtown streets of McMinnville. Take in the breathtaking views around McMinnville or check out some local hikes. Overnight in Carlton in a camping accommodation.

Day 11

After taking in the beautiful Oregon wine country, make the two-and-half-hour drive north towards Silver Creek, Washington. Silver Creek was named after a small stream possessing sand that seemed to sparkle and give an appearance of silver. Overnight in Silver Creek in a camping accommodation.

Day 12

Pack up camp for the final time and begin the drive to Seattle where you will drop off your RV.
